TESA Professional Enrichment Program (TPEP)

Re-Certification

Application

The TPEP program is designed to stimulate professional development for support staff. Applicants must submit a re-certification application including a copy of certificates for the required six hours each membership year, August 1 to July 31, in order to maintain certification as a Certified Educational Organization Professional (CEOP). There is no fee for recertification.

Instructions

1. Applicant must be a current member of TESA. (Annual membership dues are $45)
2. Copies of professional development certificates and re-certification application form are to be returned to address above. Professional development sessions must meet the following criteria:
 - At least 3 hours in length for the class on a particular topic. This does not include general staff development and/or meetings.
 - In a classroom setting or online
 - Job related
 - Taught by a qualified instructor
 - TPEP classes not taken for credit in last three (3) years
 - TPEP classes recently re-written
3. Deadline for submission for the 2022 – 2023 year is August 15, 2023.
