A minimum of fifteen (15) clock-hours of self-directed study meeting the following criteria:

- At least 3 hours in length for total class
- In a classroom setting or online*
- Job related
- Taught by a qualified instructor
- TPEP classes not taken for credit in the last three (3) years
- TPEP classes recently re-written

Participants must be enrolled in the TPEP program (have taken a TPEP class) prior to taking classes for self-directed study credit.

To receive the Certified Educational Organization Professional (CEOP) distinction:

- Complete the required clock hours of coursework
- Submit a certification application and fee
- Be a current member of TESA

TESA Central Office cannot maintain TPEP records for non-members.

Submit documentation for any coursework completed prior to becoming a TESA member.

Online Courses*

Online courses are eligible for self-directed study credit and certification update credit. Classes must be job related and considered eligible for credit from applicant's educational entity. Applicant must present the certificate showing completion of the class and credits awarded. TPEP clock-hours will be awarded in three or six-hour blocks, equaling one clock-hour per credit awarded on certificate.

Certification Update

Certification update consists of six (6) clock hours of course study per year for those CEOP recipients who wish to keep their CEOP certification current. This coursework must meet the same criteria as the self-directed study listed above and be completed between August 1 and July 31 of each year to meet requirements for that year. Update will begin the year following awarding of CEOP.
